Byfleet is an inland island village forming a suburb of Woking in Surrey. Situated at the foot of St Georges Hill Estate, next to the former Brooklands Motor Circuit and Aerodrome it is conveniently close to the neighbouring towns of Weybridge, Cobham and West Byfleet. There are excellent rail and road links to central London, Heathrow, Gatwick and the South Coast; Byfleet and New Haw railway station is under a mile away with a fast regular service into Central London or to Portsmouth, the A3 is 2.5 miles and the M25 4 miles.

Byfleet expanded considerably after the opening of the Brooklands motor circuit in 1907 and when major aircraft factories opened there during World War 1 and today has a thriving village community with a village green, the historic St Mary's Church which dates back to at least the 14th century, Village Hall, Library, Heritage Centre, a good selection of local shops and a variety of pubs and restaurants. Close at hand you have Brooklands where you will find Tesco's, Marks and Spencers and various other retail outlets, but also the stylish and contemporary Brooklands Hotel, Mercedes Benz World and Brooklands Museum which can be enjoyed by all the family. Other local leisure facilities include The David Lloyd Centre and Silvermere Golf Club, with Woking Leisure Centre about 5.5 miles away. Largely surrounded by greenbelt, the surrounding countryside is particularly attractive and is ideal for cycling, riding and walking. The river Wey, Manor House, Byfleet Mill and Common Meadow Pond are regionally important sites of Nature Conservation.

Byfleet village has two primary schools; St Mary's C of E, and Byfleet Primary School both within a mile of Bentley Place and Feltonfleet prep school 2.3 miles. There are several state and private secondary schools in the area these include Fullbrook secondary being 2.1 miles and Bishop David Brown 2.6 miles, Notre Dame 3.4 miles and St Georges College 3.1 miles.

The houses feature stunning fully fitted gloss kitchens and elegant bathrooms from the Twyford range, with Grohe thermostatic showers. Each house benefits from under floor heating to the ground floor, superb quality oak internal doors with chrome ironmongery.
